

Master of Arts Human Resources Management (MA HRM)

Ecole	Webster University Geneva
Objectifs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Prepares graduates for strategic HRM positions in both multinational and Swiss companies and organizations• Builds knowledge and competencies in key HR functional areas, in both local and international contexts• Builds knowledge of core business functions
Public cible	Previous HR experience is highly valued, but not required to enter the program. The program complements the skill set of people working in management and other areas that require a good knowledge of HR.
Conditions d'admission	Bachelor's degree from an accredited university and meeting Webster's English proficiency policy.
Contenu	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Managing Human Resources• Training and Development• Strategic Staffing• Labor Management Relations• Organizational Behavior• Employment Law• Compensation Management• Basic Finance.
Durée	2 ans
Lieu	Webster University Geneva, Bellevue
Examen	Examen
Coût	60'000 CHF
Titre	Master of Arts Human Resources Management
Site Internet	http://www.webster.ch/
Type d'étude	En Emploi